POLITICAL SCIENCE COURSE LISTING

What is political science? It is simply the systematic study of politics. But instead of trying to explain that sentence further, why not look through a sampling of the courses we offer - grouped by sub-field - to get a better idea of what it is we do?

AMERICAN POLITICS
- "National Government"*
- "Voting Behavior and Public Opinion"
- "American Political Parties & Politics"
- "Campaigns and Elections"
- "The American Legislature"
- "The American Executive"
- "The American Judiciary"
- "Constitutional Powers"
- "Civil Liberties"
- "Black Politics in America"
- "Religion and American Politics"
- "Women in Politics"
- "Women and Public Policy"
- "American Politics Through Music"
- "Humor and American Politics"
- "Social and Protest Movements"
- "Politics Through Film"
- "Public Policy and the Media"

INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS
- "Introduction to International Relations"*
- "Politics and Global Understanding"
- "Politics of Globalization"
- "American Foreign Policy"
- "National Security Policy"
- "Conflict & Peace in Post-Cold War Era"
- "International Organizations"
- "International Law"
- "Politics of Terrorism"
- "War in the Modern Age"

PUBLIC ADMINISTRATION
- "State and Local Government"
- "Urban Political Systems"
- "North Carolina Politics"
- "Public Administration"
- "Government Fiscal Administration"
- "Domestic Public Policy"

COMPARATIVE POLITICS
- "Introduction to Comparative Politics"*
- "The European Union"
- "West European Political Systems"
- "Russian Politics"
- "African Political Systems"
- "Genocide in the Twentieth Century"

OTHER COURSES
- "Introduction to Political Theory"
- "Writing for Political Science"*
- "Research Design for Political Science"*
- "Statistical Methods for Political Science"
- "Security & Weapons of Mass Destruction"

Course required for both the BA and the BS in Political Science